Community Support Helps Revitalize Tri-Counties Community Center

For years, Tri-Counties Community Center at 1830 B Street in Marysville has provided a place for people of all ages to come together, learn, and have fun. From Seniors on the Go and roller skating to drumming, archery, improv, arts and crafts, and more, the center offers a variety of activities that bring the community together.

Now, thanks to Nor-Cal Siders and its Step Up community initiative, the center has received critical structural repairs that will help keep its doors open for the community. The exterior renovation and demolition work was completed in September, giving the building a fresh new look.
